

25 Literacy Activities for Kids

The Mum Educates

- Write a letter to your friend or family telling about your health.
- Interview your parents then make a family tree.
- Read a story and then rewrite it with a different ending.
- Help your mother to write a grocery list.
- Play board games (Bananagrams, Brainbox or Scrabble junior)
- Research your favourite animal and write a fact file.
- Read a book and write a description of your favourite character.
- Plant a seed. Observe its growth and describe how plants grow and what they need.
- Make a jam sandwich for your sibling then write instructions on how to make it.
- Write an acrostic poem.
- Research your favourite characters of your choice and write a fact file.
- Make a diary entry every day.
- Choose a creative writing story starter and write in detail. Remember to use powerful adjectives.
- Choose a country you would like to visit in future. Explain in detail why did you choose that country.
- Read your favourite magazine or newspaper.
- Watch your favourite documentary.
- Make a poster of "How to wash your hands?" to display in your house.
- Create silly sentences or tongue twisters using alliteration.
- Write information pages or booklet about a hobby or something you find interesting.
- Imagine if you were a superhero what superpowers would you have. What you would do to control the current situation?
- Write a postcard to your favourite author.
- Look out of your window. Write what you can see.
- Read a book. Find and write at least 10 exotic words you read in the book. Find their meaning and make your own sentence.
- Read the blurb from a book and make a prediction before reading it.
- Make a list of 10 nouns you can find around the house. Can you write their plurals?